

In CAFÉ LA

Jon Rendell Recent Photographs

This exhibition of colour photographs by Australian expatriate artist Jon Rendell draws on the tradition of the sublime in the landscape with long panoramic views of the American southwest, alongside a collection of 'cloudscapes' at their most romantic and poignant, and most grand and turbulent. Rendell was trained in photography and ceramics in the late 1970s and has lived in San Francisco since 1994.

